

Antimicrobials under prudent use

Information for vets and experts on antimicrobials, which are under prudent use regimen in veterinary medicinal products with valid authorisation for CZ. This „prudent use“ warning is introduced within the product texts of the respective VMPs as the recommendation, but in practice it is enforced by the Decree No 344/2008 Coll., on use, prescription and delivery of medicinal products within the veterinary health care, in §2 article (3).

Document attached contains the elementary links relevant for antimicrobials as:

- OIE list of antimicrobial agents of veterinary importance (update from January 2014)
- links to the European Medicines Agency (EMA) webpage and its parts relevant from the perspective of antimicrobials/antimicrobila resistance
- information on veterinary antimicrobials consumptuion (ESVAC – web EMA) and national sales data (web ÚSKVBL)
